SELLER QUESTIONNAIRE

Home Facts & Upgrades

Everything you've put into this home, organized for the appraiser and your buyers.

PROPERTY ADDRESS | CITY | ZIP

SELLER NAME(S) | PHONE | EMAIL

ORIGEN AGENT

Why we're asking. You know this house better than anyone. The appraiser and the buyer get about an hour with it. As of November 2, 2026, appraisals for most conventional loans use a new, much more detailed report format, and appraisers are documenting homes at a finer level than ever. This questionnaire makes sure the roof you replaced, the HVAC you upgraded and the receipts in your kitchen drawer actually show up where they count.

What we do with it. Your answers become two pieces: a Property Brief we hand to the appraiser, and a Home Guide for buyers with system ages, utility averages, warranties and what conveys. Cost figures go to the appraiser.

How to fill it out. Type directly into this PDF or print it and write it in. Approximate is fine, just mark it "approx." If you don't know, write "unsure" instead of guessing. Skip anything that doesn't apply. Section 1 lists the documents to gather. Photos of receipts from your phone are perfectly fine.

> One important thing: your answers here need to match your Seller's Disclosure Notice. If you remember something here that isn't on your disclosure (or the dates differ), tell your agent so we can update it. It protects you.

List everything you've improved, newest or oldest first, whichever's easier. Be specific: brand, material, size, gauge, number of units. "New flooring" helps a little. "LVP throughout living areas and bedrooms" helps a lot. Costs are optional but useful for the appraiser.

Added rooms, enclosed garages or converted space: describe what was done, but don't estimate square footage. The appraiser measures. Note whether the space is heated and cooled by the home's central system and whether it was permitted.

Anything an appraiser or buyer would probably miss? (hidden upgrades, behind-the-wall work, quality of materials)

Energy & Big-Ticket Items

Solar panels ☐ None ☐ Owned, paid off ☐ Owned, financed ☐ Leased / PPA

SECTION 08

Flood, Insurance & Survey

Buyers in our markets ask about flood and insurance early. Having answers ready keeps deals moving. Premiums are optional but very helpful for buyers budgeting their payment.

FEMA FLOOD ZONE (IF KNOWN) | ELEVATION CERTIFICATE? | YEAR OF ELEVATION CERTIFICATE

Do you carry flood insurance? ☐ Yes ☐ No

FLOOD CARRIER | APPROX. ANNUAL FLOOD PREMIUM | COVERAGE AMOUNT

HOMEOWNER'S INSURANCE CARRIER

APPROX. ANNUAL PREMIUM (OPTIONAL)

Any wind/hail or roof insurance discounts? ☐ Yes ☐ No ☐ Unsure

Questions about past flooding, water penetration or insurance claims are covered on your Seller's Disclosure Notice. Please answer those there so everything stays consistent.

Survey

Do you have a survey of the property? ☐ Yes ☐ No ☐ Unsure

YEAR OF SURVEY

SURVEYOR / COMPANY

HAVE YOU SIGNED A T-47 BEFORE?

Anything added or changed since the survey? ☐ Yes ☐ No

(fence, pool, garage, carport, shop, shed, addition, driveway, patio cover, slab, etc.)

If yes, what and when?

> Why this matters: a buyer can sometimes reuse your existing survey and save the cost of a new one, but only if nothing has changed. Knowing now avoids a scramble during the option period.

SECTION 09

Living Here

This is the part buyers actually read. Keep it about the home and property: features, spaces and how the house lives. Please leave out descriptions of neighbors or who lives in the area.

What do you love most about this home?

Best features a buyer might miss on a 20-minute showing (storage, pantry, natural light, views, etc.)

SECTION 10

Anything Else?

Anything else you want the appraiser or buyers to know?

Your answers are based on your best knowledge and haven't been verified by Origen Realty. They aren't a warranty and don't replace your Seller's Disclosure Notice, inspections or the sales contract. By returning this questionnaire, you're letting us share this information and your documents with appraisers, lenders, buyers and their agents. If anything changes, just let your agent know.

> Thank you. Send this back to your Origen agent along with your documents. We'll turn it into your Property Brief and Home Guide and review both with you before anything goes out.
